GERMAN

NEW YEAR'S EVE BALL!

Will be given in Mr. W. C. MILLER'S new building, by the undersigned—who will dance out the old and in the New Year. There will also be a Musical Concert in the small Hall. Two bands of Music have been engaged. Arrangements will be made to accommodate one hundred couple.

C. C. WEIBERT.

Religious Notice.

The Rev. ALPHRED SWEET, will preach at the Universalist Church on Sunday next, at the usual hour in the morning.

A "Happy Christmas" to all the readers of the Journal, and "the rest of mankind," including a "fat Turkey" for the editor of the Dispatch.

Next week, we shall send to our subscribers, in an extra, a superb Calendar for the year 1869.

The classes in book-keeping and commercial arithmetic commence in the Union Schools on Monday, January 4th—the opening of next term. Those young men who desire to study these branches should be present the first day.

We announced last week that our city schools would commence their next term on the 11th day of January. Since then the Board have concluded to have the next term commence on January 4th, making the vacation eleven days instead of eighteen.

The hull of the burnt steamer United States has been raised, and towed to Cincinnati. Her bow was found to be almost completely cut off.

First Lieut. C. C. ALSHIRE, Third U. S. Artillery, has been brevetted, upon the recommendation of Gen. GEORGE H. THOMAS, Major in the U. S. A., for gallant and meritorious service at the battle of Nashville.

The steamer Jonas Powell is to be sold by the U. S. Marshal of West Virginia, at Pt. Pleasant, Jan. 1st, 1869.

Capt. ALAN HALLIDAY, of this city, has disposed of his interest in the steamer Golden Era, at New Orleans, and will soon return North.

Col. B. F. COATS, of Portsmouth, District Internal Revenue Collector, and Col. ELIAS NICK, of Ironton, District Assessor, were in town Monday. They are both efficient, honest officers.

There is to be a re-union of the officers and soldiers of the 53d O. V. I. at Jackson, on Wednesday, January 13th. All members of the regiment are invited.

Harris Pottery, Ironton, was destroyed by fire last week. Loss about $500.

Sheriff BLAZER took to the Penitentiary, last week, ROBERT BROWN, convicted at the late term of the Court of horse stealing.

Prof. C. S. SMART, whose resignation of the Superintendency of the Jackson Union School we noticed last week, we understand goes to Circleville to take charge of the Public Schools of that city.

We have received the December number of "The Odd Fellow's Companion," published at Columbus, Ohio, by M. C. LILLEY & Co. It is filled with interesting matter. The frontispiece is a portrait of E. D. FARNSWORTH, Esq., M. W. Grand Sir of the Grand Lodge of the United States. Price $2.50 per annum—monthly.

The friends of DAVID HEDRICK, who was drowned at our wharf two weeks since, are anxious to recover his body, and to that end offer a liberal reward. He is described as being between 25 and 30 years of age—of medium size, and dressed wholly in homespun clothes. Coat and pants of a brown color—vest blue mixed jeans—shirt checked with black and red—and had on a pair of heavy shop boots.

Any information in relation to the recovery of the body may be sent to Dr. C. D. WALL, of this city, who is authorized to act for the friends of the deceased.

A story has got into the papers that Mr. HEDRICK had on his person three thousand five hundred dollars in money. This is an error. He had a small amount with him, but not near the sum stated.

Those who wish a reliable preparation for the hair should adopt HALL'S Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer.

MURDER.—Wm. B. MOORE, formerly sheriff of Cabell county, W. Va., was killed by an unknown assassin, near Guyandotte, on the 15th inst.

J. D. WOODYARD & Co., have a large stock of goods suitable for holiday presents.

Our people certainly deserve credit for their patience. Our mails still drag along, near one day behind the time they should reach here, and we hear of no efforts being made to remedy the evil. Surely, with the aid and influence of the people of the Kanawha Valley, who, with us, are alike incommoded by the present arrangement, this great wrong might be remedied, and the old schedule time re-established. Let us make the effort at least. Who will start the movement?

Do not fail to call at the Book Store, and see the elegant stock of goods just received and opened. Parties wishing to purchase presents for the Holidays, cannot fail to be suited. See advertisement next week.

For places to buy your Christmas presents look over the advertising columns of the Journal. Those who have such things to sell, and want to sell generally advertise.

D. S. FORD, Grocer, Court street, has many choice articles for Christmas. See advertisement.

J. D. WOODYARD & Co. are agents for the National Life Insurance Co. Rates lower than any Life Insurance Co. in the country.

Gentlemen who are particular about having their Boots made in style will find the New Boot & Shoe Store of BAILEY & MAGNET the place they are looking for.

Messrs. WASSON & KENNEDY are in receipt of a choice assortment of Fancy Goods and Toys, suitable for the approaching Holidays. The articles they display have been chosen with care, and will please everybody.

Dealers will find it to their advantage to call and examine the large stock just received by Messrs. BAILEY & MAGNET.

The River.—The ice has disappeared, and navigation is fully resumed. All our packets are again at work, and are making their trips with their accustomed regularity.

This (Wednesday) morning brings another change in the weather. It came off cold during the night, and ice is now forming rapidly.

Pork.—The Cincinnati Gazette of Friday says:—"Is money scarce? Hogs in brisk demand at $11 net, and the market much excited. This price is paid freely, cash down, with more buyers than sellers. Farmers who are pocketing $25 per head for hogs will hardly say that money is scarce."

A Sad Tragedy.

The Vinton Record says:—"We learn that a young lad, aged about fourteen, named Thomas Scott, who resides in Jackson county, three miles South of Hamden, killed his father with a club, on Friday evening last. From what we can learn, the father came home drunk, commenced abusing the family, when the son seized a club or stick of wood, striking his father four blows, each one of which fractured the skull causing death in a short time."

Bro. HOOS.—The Cincinnati Commercial of Friday says:—"Mr. Andy Bowman yesterday exhibited, at the front of the Exchange, a couple of immense hogs. One of them, raised by M. W. Shidrac, of Warren County, weighed 385 pounds at twenty-six months of age. Of a lot of forty the average was 396 pounds. The other monster weighed, at twenty-eight months old, 920 pounds. He was raised by Dr. Stokes, also of Warren, and is now at the shambles for shoats."

Marriage Licenses.

Judge LOUIS issued the following marriage licenses for the last week, to-wit:

Lorenzo Boice to Mary J. Cunningham; Pleasant L. Allis to Euphemia Ann Crampton; Pleasant Dixon to Sarah White; Isaac F. Chapman to Mary E. Lewis; Obadiah R. Guy to Susan Rebecca Shaver.

The Cincinnati Gazette, of Monday, says:

The wreck of the J. N. McCullough is lying about 300 yards above the pork house at Madison. At the time that she sunk it was supposed that no lives were lost; but on Wednesday the body of a colored deck hand named A. Jackson was taken from the wreck, and on Friday that of a white deck hand named Charles Gibson was removed. The latter was aged 15 years, and shipped at Pittsburg.

The assignment of Supreme Judges for the District Courts, for 1869, are as follows:

First Circuit, composed of the First Judicial District, Chief Justice Day; Second Circuit, composed of the Second and Third Judicial Districts, Judge White; Third Circuit, composed of the Fourth and Sixth Judicial Districts, Judge Welch; Fourth Circuit, composed of the Fifth and Seventh Judicial Districts, Judge Brinkerhoff; Fifth Circuit, composed of the Eighth and Ninth Judicial Districts, Judge Scott.

Fifty head of cattle were shipped here, Sunday, on the steamer Mary Erwin, Capt. BLASS, for the Cincinnati market.

Judge CHAIR has sentenced Andrew Price, convicted at Ironton of the murder of Lewis Hilgenburg, to be hung on Friday, the 12th day of March, 1869. Executions in Ohio are not public, but are required to be conducted in the Jail yard, unseen by only such as the Sheriff may call for as witnesses.

Work on fencing the Public Square is going ahead. A few more days of good weather and it will be completed. Then, in the Spring, let the work of its adornment commence.

Wm. SNODER has now positively the largest and finest stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silver Plated Ware, and all articles belonging to a first class Jewelry establishment. We can confidently recommend him to be a gentleman who will represent goods just precisely what they are. All those who wish to purchase anything in his line, will do well to look through his stock. His silver plated ware is direct from the celebrated Meriden Manufacturing Co., Conn., and by making his purchases in that line direct from headquarters, he is enabled to sell at least 20 per cent cheaper than parties purveying elsewhere. The Meriden Manufacturing Co., is known for making the best wares, and needs no recommendation from us.

All his other goods he buys for cash, which enables him to buy at lowest figures, and therefore can offer great inducements to purchasers. Place of business is on the Public Square—same stand where he has been for many years—and where we hope to find him for many years to come.

In July, 1834, he came to Fort Jennings, in Putnam county, at which place he resided until his death. His successor will be elected December 31st.
